PASTOR SUSAN GASCHO-COOKE WILL BE ON SABBATICAL LEAVE FROM OCT 10 - JAN 10—

During her absence, Pam Brubaker will be supplementing pastoral care, alongside Pastoral staff and Pastoral Team.

POTLUCK KICKOFF THIS SUNDAY!— Hooray, first Sunday Fellowship meals are starting up again! If you're looking for a bit of company for lunch this Sunday, bring a dish to share after the 2nd service. Don't forget a plate (or bowl) and flatware. And please label your dish so it gets back to you. After lunch you can settle in and watch the rain, or 'the game', or just nap! ~ Hospitality Committee

WORSHIP THIS SUNDAY— Guest Preacher Kevin Ressler will help us kick off our fall Sankofa worship theme.

THE FISHBOWL IS BACK!— Starting this week, October 2nd, we welcome the little ones (childcare for ages 0-4 years) to the Fishbowl during the second church service (not available during first service). As a reminder, the children start the church service with their families, and are then dismissed to go down to the Fishbowl with a grown up after the children's story time. We hope to be able to continue this service regularly to families again, but we do need more volunteers to keep it running smoothly! If you are willing and able to help out every once in a while, please email Lindsey Deininger at chilcare@communitymennonite.org.

COMMUNION SET UP— We are looking for several volunteers to take responsibility for the preparation and set up of communion at CMCL each month. This would involve purchasing the elements (you would be reimbursed), cutting the bread, and setting up the platters and communion table for both services, and cleaning up after second service. This could be shared among several individuals, or taken on by one individual or couple. Ellen and John Kanagy did this on behalf of CMCL for several years pre-pandemic. If you would be interested in this, please contact Pastor Susan.

NOVEMBER 6, 13, 20: THIS I BELIEVE— We invite CMCLers of all ages to write and share a 500-600 word "statement of your personal beliefs, of the values which rule your thought and action." Inspired by the NPR series from the 1950s, and again in the mid 2000s, the idea is "to tell not only what you believe, but how you reached your beliefs, and if they have grown, what made them grow."

Our "sermon" these three Sundays in November will be hearing a number of CMCLers share their statements. So, please consider writing a statement -- and invite a friend, your family and/or your small group to write one, too! Please let Pastor Susan Gascho-Cooke know by October 4 if you would like to participate.

SPECIAL ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION SERIES WITH REV. NAOMI WASHINGTON-LEAPHEART — As part of our Sankofa fall theme, Rev Naomi Washington-Leapheart will be preaching in both services on October 9, and will be leading us in a 6 week Adult Christian Education series from Oct 9 - November 13. You are encouraged to purchase or borrow a copy of White Too Long by Robert P. Jones and there will be ways to engage one another and the material in virtual conversation during the week between sessions. Check out this introduction video to learn more about the series: <https://youtu.be/rSU1VeilgTU>.

AFFINITY GROUPS— CMCL has another affinity group! Please check out this form to see if you'd like to join this new group, or any of the others offered! CMCL is continuing our Affinity groups (short term small groups) this year. The Affinity groups will consist of monthly gatherings of CMCLers on topics of mutual interest for fellowship, spiritual development, and support. We encourage everyone to consider joining one of the small groups listed below. There is no long-term commitment! It's only for this year; groups will reshuffle next August. The leaders will convene and help schedule, but the substance and goals of each discussion will be determined by the group. If you have questions, please contact the Small Group Committee Chair, Brenda Sauder at brendaroses@gmail.com.

ACC STORYTELLER NIGHT AT CMCL— Join us for an evening of live storytelling on October 8, 2022. Storytellers will present a 5-minute true story related to the theme of the evening: My [church] family. They don't use props, notes, or music—just the storyteller at the mic for a five-minute true story. We will be seeking storytellers from ACC congregations so please help us by encouraging your congregation's storyteller to share with us in October. Interested in sharing your story? Email brookm@atlanticcoastconference.net with your story title.

Megan Phelps-Roper shares details of life inside America's most controversial church and describes how conversations on Twitter were key to her decision to leave it. In this extraordinary talk, she shares her personal experience of extreme polarization, along with some sharp ways we can learn to successfully engage across ideological lines.

SANKOFA SABBATICAL SERIES

October 9–November 13

As part of our fall of Sankofa reflection, Rev. Naomi Washington-Leapheart will be preaching on Sunday, October 9, and leading a series of education sessions on "The End of White Christian America," based on a course she has taught through The Alternative Seminary. A troubling reality in America is that white supremacy is grounded in Christian history, texts, ideas, and institutions. Is Christian faith possible apart from anti- Blackness? We will explore this question and more as we contemplate the end of White Christian America and what that would mean to the liberation of all.

Rev. Naomi Washington-Leapheart is a Black-queer church girl, preacher, teacher, and activist. She develops spaces of spiritual candor, disruption, reflection, transformation, and action. Rev. Naomi is an adjunct professor of theology and religious studies at Villanova University and is the founder of Salt | Yeast | Light.

DRC WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENT

This excerpt is shared by Lois Lehman from the blog of Curtis Reilly doStoerpns001rp8fhj.2la2tg9hceSb6_167013il2gci4aae681_m0ceu

Curtis Reilly has worked directly with Lennox Island First Nation through the Mi'kmaq Confederacy of Prince Edward Island Employment Services Program. This story appears on his blog and is followed by the comments and sharing by many other Indigenous People.

Here is the story: About 10 years ago I was at a conference where I sat in a room with 200 other people. An Elder was invited to speak. As she slowly walked up to the podium with obvious nervousness, it was at that very moment that is forever burned in my mind. As she turned to all of us, she removed her false teeth and set them on the podium. With an enormous amount of courage she told us about her childhood as a little girl and about her perfect teeth. She was so proud of her teeth because everyone complimented her on them as far back as she could recall.

There wasn't a sound as she spoke. But as she continued, I remember the faint echoes of people sobbing. In disbelief, for the first time I was hearing a residential school survivor tell their story. The story was about a young, fun loving, smart little girl who was now having her teeth removed for speaking her language at residential school.

I am not sure if I heard many more details of her story. But despite it all, I remember the pride, the resilience and the forgiveness in her voice. She was telling the story so people like me could somehow believe and understand just a little bit of what she and so many indigenous boys and girls experienced. It has helped me in understanding the meaning of generational trauma. Her story has helped me to stop and listen. Although I never met her or have seen her again - I think of her and the story of her perfect teeth often.

I hope the girl with the perfect teeth has some peace today, as Canada stops, listens and reflects on September 30th.

SAVE THE DATE!

Put October 29, 2022, on your calendar. This is the day we will take a bus to DC to visit the National Museum of African American History and Culture. Email Marty Kelley (martykelley4plus@gmail.com) or Diane Umble (diane.umble@gmail.com) to sign up.

INTRODUCING OUR NEW DOCTOR OF MINISTRY—AMBS is now accepting applications for a new Doctor of Ministry degree — the first of its kind. Not only is the seminary's Doctor of Ministry in Leadership (DMin) the only DMin in the United States to be deliberately developed with an Anabaptist framework, it's also the first DMin in the U.S. and Canada approved by the Association of Theological Schools to be designed from the outset as a competency-based program.

"We know from consultations with pastors and leaders in the church, as well as from feedback from our own alumni, that the church needs leaders who continually grow in specific competencies," said Beverly Lapp, EdD, Vice President and Academic Dean. "We've shaped and focused our new DMin in response to these needs."

Jewel Gingerich Longenecker, PhD, and Dan Schrock, DMin, will serve as co-directors of the new program. Applications for the January 2023 cohort are due Nov. 1.

ROCKETS, ROSE BUSHES & RELIEF—By overland route, MCC supplies arrive for thousands of displaced Ukrainians. MCC is seeing an increased demand for supplies to send to Ukraine and other countries around the world. The inventory of material resources is getting low. MCC needs comforters; hygiene, infant care, school and sewing kits; bath and laundry soap bars. To read more in Anabaptist World, click here.

THE LIVING GHOSTS OF ANTI-BLACKNESS LECTURE—Please reserve Monday, October 3 at 7 pm for the 2022 Elizabethtown College Peace Fellow Lecture. This year's Peace Fellow is Dr. Christena Cleveland. The title of her lecture will be The Living Ghosts of Anti-Blackness. Drawing from historical and social science research, Dr. Christena Cleveland will briefly present the surprising origins of modern-day anti-Blackness, discussing how the origins shed light on the ways that white supremacy continues to shape the thoughts, emotions, and behaviors of all people today. Dr. Cleveland will illuminate how understanding the roots of anti-Blackness can help people of all races to identify their unique pathways to liberation.

For those attending in person, the Lecture will be held at Etown College in Gible Auditorium with audience overflow in Hoover 110. Dr. Cleveland's latest book, God Is A Black Woman, published by HarperCollins, is available.

THE EMBRACE GALA: A CELEBRATION OF INCLUSIVE FAITH—This will be a celebration of the work of Lancaster County Communities of Faith and clergy in moving towards open, affirming, and inclusive practices of faith with regards to the LGBTQ+ community and the work of Embrace in supporting them.
