CALLING ALL CMCLers, WHATEVER YOUR AGE, TO SHARE YOUR REFLECTIONS ON SANKOFA— Sankofa, a Ghanaian proverb meaning “go back and get what you lost/forgot so that you can move forward,” has been the theme for our journey toward dismantling racism over the past few months. Now you are invited to reflect on what you have learned and what you will take with you going forward. What have you learned from books, discussions, Church Retreat, Rev. Naomi, the trip to the National Museum of African American History and Culture, personal experiences and/or sermons?

For the coming month, you are invited to post images, quotes, doodles, videos, your scrap book page, and other materials that capture what you have gained on your Sankofa journey. Click on this link to upload your content: <https://photos.app.goo.gl/QVKKG2vScWNFWAMA7> CLICK “Add photo” to add a photo or pre-recorded video. The Worship Committee plans to use this album a part of the congregational response during worship on January 15 when we welcome Susan and her family back from sabbatical.

SENIOR YOUTH WREATH FUNDRAISER— The CMCL Senior Youth are again offering their beautiful, hand-decorated wreaths uniquely designed for you to enjoy throughout the holidays. Get a head start on the season and reserve your wreaths now. Each 22-inch Douglas Fir wreath costs $30 and may be picked up at the church on Saturday, December 3 between 1-3 p.m. or on Sunday, December 4 between the services or after church during the potluck. We will be making extras so if you forget to reserve one, don't panic!

To reserve your wreaths place your order at the sign-up in the Parrot Gallery after services beginning Nov 12th OR follow THIS LINK to an online signup. If you have any questions, please contact Pastor Amanda, amanda@communitymenonite.org.

PARROT GALLERY, FIRST FRIDAY— I will have the door open from 5-8 p.m. on December 2 in the Parrot Gallery. You are welcome to drop by to see my art. I have note cards of the paintings available. Thanks for each one who has come and has shared your comments. —Pauline Zimmerman schedule. Even if you've had a Parrot Gallery exhibit in the past, but it's been a few years, feel free to throw your name into the mix. If interested, or just wanting more information, please contact a member of the committee: Mary Lou Weaver Houser, Cara Longacre Hurst, Marcy Sims or Beky Weidner.

MENNONITE WOMEN, DECEMBER 7— Women please mark your calendars and bring your book lists of your favorite reads to share with the Mennonite Women gathering at the home of Jane Weigel. We will enjoy some yummy snacks as we share titles on Wednesday evening, December 7, at 7:00 PM. Jane lives at 813 Lightfoot Drive, Lancaster, off of Millport Road south of Lancaster city. Carpooling is recommended as always. Hope we can share some interesting reads for the winter months. Be prepared to share a title or two and a short synopsis of your recommendation. Any questions text Carolyn Dries at 610-310-0460.

PEACE AND JUSTICE COMMITTEE INVITES THE PUBLIC TO AN INFORMATIVE FORUM, DEC. 14—

The Peace & Justice Committee invites the public to an informative forum at CMCL, from 5-6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 14, called Don't Overbuild: A Townhall on Right-Sizing the New Jail. Experts will discuss best practices in bail and other criminal justice procedures that could assure that the new Lancaster County jail is fiscally responsible and no bigger than necessary. Lancaster County plans to spend $150 million on the new jail, making it the largest county-financed construction project ever.

Presenters will include Michelle Batt of Lancaster Bail Fund and the Rev. Jason Perkowski of POWER Interfaith. Invitees include the county commissioners, the warden, the district attorney and the president judge.

Some of the questions that will be addressed include:

- How can bail reform reduce the number of people languishing in jail before they get to trial?
- How could a stronger commitment to pretrial services impact the need for a large jail?
- What is the evidence that public safety isn't at risk when fewer people are detained before trial?
- What data will consultants use to determine the size of the new jail? Is the consultant considering how best practices could safely reduce the prison population?
- What can Lancaster County learn from Berks County's decision to understand how mental health programs can reduce the size of the jail planned there?
- Does it make sense to have a work-release program that allows qualified inmates to work for eight hours in the community, then return to sleep in jail?

The ACLU has sued Lancaster County, alleging unconstitutional bail practices. If the ACLU wins, what impact would the outcome have on the size of the new jail? The townhall is timely because CGL, the county's project consultant, is presenting a draft needs assessment at the Dec. 15 prison board meeting. The needs assessment will be the basis for decisions about the size and design of the jail. The county plans to hire an architect this winter, and groundbreaking is slated for Spring 2024.
