COMMUNITY MENNONITE CHURCH OF LANCASTER

328 West Orange Street, Lancaster, PA 17603

June 10, 2018

Environment: June through September

The book, Sadako and the 1000 Paper Cranes inspired the current environment in our sanctuary. Japanese legend tells us that one who creates a thousand origami cranes will be granted a wish. The paper cranes in the sanctuary were folded by CMCL attendees in anticipation of our annual summer Peace School. Many found the process of folding the paper cranes to be prayerful, and meditative. As our congregation lights our peace lamp each Sunday, our collective prayer is for world peace and harmony in relationships.

Our Annual Peace School began in 1995 to “teach about historic pacifism, contemporary conflict resolution and Biblical teachings on peace and justice.” We wanted our children’s summer Bible School to reflect the core teachings of our congregation.

Look for empty glass cylinders that will be placed on the windowsills for congregants who want to continue folding. You may place your paper cranes in the glass containers at any time. Feel free to fold during the church services.

Our thanks to Ben Friesen, professional origami artist, who volunteered his time to teach adults and youth in our congregation how to fold paper cranes.

Our thanks to all who participated in the folding, stringing and hanging of the cranes: Olivia Shumaker, Greta Shumaker, Raewyn Kraybill, Christy Heatwole Kauffman, Ezra Kauffman, Cynthia Stayrook, Carol and Michael Eby-Good, Janet Lind, Aaron Eby-Good, Kaia Helmuth and Donna Milton (Please let Lynn know if we missed your name!)

Call to Worship

The Lord's Prayer

(alternate version, from the
New Zealand Anglican Prayer Book)

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver,
Source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
Loving God, in whom is heaven:
The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!
Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain
our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.
From trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever.

Scripture and Lectio Divina

Mark 3:31-35

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, 'Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.' And he replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking at those who sat around him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.'
