WELCOME CMCL's new Office Coordinator – Sallie McCann Tupper!

We are very pleased to announce that Sallie joined CMCL's staff on Monday, Oct. 15! Her hours in the office will be M-F 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Sallie's work experience includes a number of previous office support positions - including administrative assistant at James Street Mennonite. She and her husband, Kelton, attend West End Mennonite Fellowship. Send facility reservation requests and mid-week or bulletin announcements to Sallie at sallie@communitymennonite.org or reach her by phone in the office at 717-392-7567. Welcome Sallie!

TWO ARTISTS, TWO ELEMENTS: “WOOD AND CLAY”

Lancaster City residents Ken Nissley and Joe Miller both honed their artistry in midlife. They open their exhibit, “Wood and Clay,” on First Friday, November 2, 2018, 5-8 p.m. in the Parrot Gallery at 328 W Orange Street. Nissley's woodworking using local hardwoods and Miller's functional pottery represent hours of sheer enjoyment. Come discover their creative efforts!

PAX JC REMINDER: Thank you, CMCLers for your constant generosity! The basket at the back of the sanctuary welcomes items for Crispus Attucks and Lancaster Council of Churches food cupboards. Below is a list of item suggestions, hoping this is helpful. Coats for young people at Fulton Elementary School are being collected in the bins near the mailboxes. Neutral colors are recommended. New or slightly used are good.

Applesauce (not in glass)	Cereal
Granola bars	Cooking oils (olive and canola)
Canned meat	Crackers
Canned or dried fruit	Peanut Butter
Canned fish	Nuts
Dried herbs and spices	Rice
Canned vegetables	Powdered milk
Instant mashed potatoes	Soup, Stew and Chili
Canned beans	Toiletries
Pasta

Things to not share: Out of date or nearly out of date foods, junk food, items with glass or cellophane packaging, which can be broken in transit, things that need can openers or special equipment (pop-top cans—whether for veggies, meat or fruit—are a plus). PAX JC welcomes comments and suggestions.

CMCL PARKING LOT GARDEN VOLUNTEERS

The CMCL parking lot gardens need one or two more volunteers to sign up for weeding/trash pick-up before winter. Please sign up on the garden calendar on the bulletin board across from the church mailboxes. See Mary Lou Weaver Houser for details about the new ground cover plants!

Community/General Mennonite

“FINDING CHANNELS OF GRACE AND CARE” is a panel presentation for aging seniors and their families. Lauren Sophia Kreider will present “Coping with Losses that Accumulate as We Age”, Gerald and Marlene Kaufman will present “Necessary Family Conversations”, Kenneth Brubaker’s topic will be “Maintaining Brain Health as One Ages” and Mark Brinser will present “The Importance of a Personal Financial Organizer”. This event is held at Otterbein United Methodist Church on Saturday, October 27 from 8:30 a.m. to noon and includes lunch. Register online at otterbeinlancpa.net.

“CONTINUING CARE AT HOME” Friends Life Care and Landis Communities invite you to attend an informational seminar on an unique membership-based program designed to help persons remain in their home as they age. The Continuing Care at Home seminar will be at the church in The Parrot Gallery on Oct 24, starting at 4:30 pm. Flyers are available at the bulletin board. Please call 1-844-2LANDIS to reserve a seat."
