St. Brigid's Cross

In the front of our sanctuary we have St. Brigid's Cross, in fiber-art quilt form. St. Brigid's crosses are usually woven from rushes. St. Brigid of Kildare was a leader of the early Celtic Christian Church. She is one of Ireland's patron saints; an early Christian nun, abbess, and founder of several monasteries of nuns. Our own Jan Stoltzfus designed and created this interpretation of St. Brigid's Cross for our sanctuary. The reed St. Brigid's cross was woven at Solas Bhríde Centre in Kildare Ireland. It is infused with blessings and intentions for world peace, which were named by fellow pilgrims.

“BUT WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?”

STORIES OF JESUS/IMAGES OF CHRIST

Prelude "Who do you say I am?", by musicians

Lighting of the Peace Lamp

Welcome & Call to Worship

Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.

Through the praise of children and infants you have established a stronghold against your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have established, I am in awe.

"What are human beings that you are mindful of us,
mortals that you care for us?"

Yet you have made us a little lower than God,
and crowned us with glory and honor.

You have given us dominion over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under our feet,
all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,
the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

Lord, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
(Adapted from Psalm 8)

Gathering Hymns Christ is our cornerstone HWB #43, revised lyrics below
He comes to us as one unknown HWB #498

Christ is our cornerstone, revised verses

- 1.) ... With all true saints above ...
- 2.) Here, gracious Christ, may you / forever more draw near.
Accept each heartfelt prayer and calm each restless fear.
With lavish grace,
For all who come to you in love will see your face.
- 3.) So then with songs of praise / our grateful hearts we bring,
Our voices raise to Christ, the peaceful, humble king,
And thus proclaim
In joyful song, aloud and strong, his saving name.
- 4.) (As in hymnbook)

Come and see

HWB #20

We value children's participation in worship. This is a sacred time for children and adults alike. Let us listen and see with the eyes and ears of a child.

Offertory/Offering Go a little deeper, by Daryl Snider

Scriptures John 16:12-15

Sophia Sauder

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

Romans 5:1-5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.
